

Happy Corporate Culture – The Now Nows

In our happy corporate culture - the future's looking bright
In our happy corporate culture - everything'll be alright

Consecutive executives are making out they're sensitive to everything but the bottom line They're handing out the sedatives hoping that the credulous will make it to the stores in time
Hey you over there with the purple hair you're building something pretty cool wanna chat?
We can package it up beautifully seal it off hermetically suck the life right out of it

Bill me Brand me Feed me mediocrity together we're gonna go far Tease me Please me with 43 varieties of sickly sweet chocolate bar

In our happy corporate culture - the future's looking bright
In our happy corporate culture - Celebrities are always right

Your Coca-Cola sponsored local hospital is saying your consumption is the cure not the cause
"Though your obesity is morbid the alternative is boring sir so have some cake and now have some more"
You're not a subject, citizen, comrade or even denizen of anywhere any more You're not even a number never mind a paid up member of a cult you're just a consumer

Buy Buy Buy! Buy one get one free
Then Buy a bigger one it'll change your life: As Seen On TV!

In our happy corporate culture - everything'll be alright
In our happy monoculture - the homogenous can unite

I'm the jaw that bites
The hand that feeds
If I could I would charge you for the air you breathe

I'm a good corporate citizen I pay my taxes when I can be bothered (yeah I'm kinda godlike)
I can surgically insert your credit card right up your arse and I can scan you any time I like I'll dazzle you with choice till you're convinced you've got a voice;
I'll be there for you day or night
Don't care about your race or creed

I'll give you what you really need, Catholic, Jew, Sikh or Shi-ite
Bill me Brand me Feed me mediocrity together we're gonna go far Tease me Please me with 43 varieties
But who the hell really needs 43 varieties of sickly sweet chocolate bar???
You do!
I do!
We all do!
It's better than voodoo, this shit

We gonna be happy together, one big happy family for ever after
In our happy corporate culture
In our happy mono-culture
In our happy corporatopia Everything'll be alright ...
