

Let's Get Together – The Now Nows

You say our love is on the rocks
I say it's already been sunk
You wish that we had never met
I wish you that you did not exist

I'm not the one you need
You're not the one I want
So let's get together now and
Together let's prove each other wrong

You chase the sun I crave the rain
What brings you joy fills me with shame
You're never right I'm always wrong
You like the silence I sing along

I'm not the one you need
You're not the one I want
So let's get together now and
Together let's prove each other wrong

You tear it up, I tear it down
You broke the rules I messed around
You'll never change I'll stay the same
You hurt me once I'll do it again
You let me down I walked on by
You shut me out I make you cry
You play with me I twist your words
You twist the knife I make it hurt

You're not the one I need
I'm not the one you want
You're not the one I need
I'm not the one you want
Let's get together prove each other wrong ...
